The Play's The Thing	TPTT	7-11 years old	Wed, 7:00-8:00	Whether you're a new performer ready to tread the boards for the first time, or a veteran actor seeking to improve your performance, "The Play's The Thing" is the perfect class to build experience, develop professional skills and have a great deal of fun. This workshop based class will guide each student through a personalized experience of the full production, from audition to casting, rehearsal and character development, script work and improvisation, and ultimately performance and critique. Through a combination of one-on-one and group focus, each student will learn the value of building ensemble, creating a safe environment and excelling in independent thought and theatrical expression.	$120 Sept-Dec	due in full upon registration
Play On	PO	12 years and up	Wed, 5:00-6:00	In this fast-paced class, students will work in two popular mediums of theater: scene study and improvisation. For the scene study workshops, students will build a portfolio of independent monologues, intimate two person dialogues and small group scenes. In the improvisation workshops, students will interact through comic improv games, short scene formats and long scene formats. The combination of skills from all workshops will lead each student to become a stronger and more independent performer.	$120 Sept-Dec	due in full upon registration

The Black Box Theater Room

Featuring a small stage from which students can deliver monologues in class, the Black Box Theater Room will be home to our newest division.

The layout of the room makes it easy to present small works-in-progress to parents throughout the year.

It is versatile in its appearance, and can be easily transformed into a variety of settings determined by the instructor's lesson plans.
